

Tuğba Atasoy is at Fashion Week Istanbul with her new line 'Retrofication'!

Fashion Designer Tuğba Atasoy takes her place at Fashion Week Istanbul with her new collection 'Retrofication'. She interprets all the details of the female phenomenon with the libertarian attitude of 70s.

Tuğba Atasoy, who easily adapted the changing conditions of our globe, prepared a special collection for women. Especially, for who are in the state of mind of freedom.

Her story begins with an optimistic point of view that takes the melancholy away. She creates her own world on this plateau and she carries the libertarian attitude of the 70s by expressing the fantastic narratives of her dreams into this contemporary context.

Her designs promise an image in harmony with an architectural, historical and natural texture that completes the whole look.

Her collection reflects all the dynamics from Couture to daily styles consisted of natural materials such as the new generation versions of cotton, viscose, modal and silk fabrics. All collection is been prepared with high craftsmanship.

She used drapes, ribs, sleeve cuts, rich fabrics and elegant embroideries that would wrapp every woman's body within a right angle.

'Retrofication ' line has 18 looks which are dominated by pastel, natural and dynamic color tones.

Bottomline is ;Tugba Atasoy's designs offer a wildcard in this fashion game for those who seek a high level sophisticated style.
